Useful information and definitions

BYO permit

BYO permit

A BYO permit authorises liquor to be consumed, possessed or controlled on the premises of a restaurant or club.

Application fee

The application fee must be paid at the time of application. If your application is granted, the renewal fee for the following year is due annually on 31 December, irrespective of when the licence is granted. A renewal notice will be issued prior to this date detailing how to make payment to the State Revenue Office and the cost. There is no GST payable on this fee. Please refer to the liquor licence fees fact sheet for current details. The fee can be paid by cheque, money order or credit card. Cheques and money orders are to be made payable to Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation.

Red line plan

When a BYO permit is granted, it is for a defined area. The defined area indicates where liquor can be consumed and is shown by a red-line drawn on a plan of the premises. A plan is required to be submitted to the VCGLR as part of the application process and may also be required upon request at any time.

Declaration of the right to occupy the premises

For a BYO permit to be issued, the applicant must have the right to occupy the premises. You will need to provide a declaration of your right to occupy the premises once the lease agreement has been executed and/or settlement has occurred for the sale of the property and/or you have otherwise acquired the legal right to occupy the premises (i.e. you are the freehold owner of the premises, the Certificate of Title is in your name or your name is on the executed lease agreement etc).

If you do not have the right to occupy when you lodge your application, you will need to provide a declaration once you have acquired the right to occupy the premises. Please send or email the VCGLR your declaration.

Declaration of associates

The purpose of the declaration of associates form is to identify an applicant's associates. The application must be accompanied by completed declaration of associates form(s).

- If the applicant is an individual, the individual must complete the form.
- If the applicant is a partnership, each partner must complete the form separately.
- If the applicant is a body corporate, the body corporate must complete the form advising of its associates and each director of the body corporate must complete this form separately.

Current and Historical Company Extract – company applicants only

If you are applying for a licence in the name of a company you are required to provide a recent (no more than 90 days old) Current and Historical Company Extract from the Australian Security and Investments Commission (ASIC). Current and Historical Company Extract identifies the type, status, registered address, roles within the organisation, share structure, members and charges and documents lodged (current and historical) of organisations registered with ASIC.

When making a search application to ASIC, ensure that you specify that you require a Current and Historical Company Extract and not a Current Company Extract. A Current and Historical Company Extract identifies both current and historical information about the applicant, while the Current Extract identifies only current information.

You can purchase a Current and Historical Company Extract from the ASIC website at asic.gov.au.

Incorporated Association information

If you are applying for a licence in the name of an incorporated association you must provide the certificate of incorporation, rules and minutes of the most recent meeting confirming the committee members.

Body Corporate and Nominee definition

A body corporate is an organisation which has a separate legal status to its members (i.e. it can own property, sue and be sued, and enter into contracts in its own name). Examples of body corporates include companies, incorporated associations, incorporated partnerships, municipal councils, co-operatives, government agencies and institutions. Unincorporated clubs/associations and unincorporated partnerships are not body corporates. A minimum of one director must reside in Victoria unless a proposed nominee has been nominated.

A body corporate may apply to the VCGLR for the approval of a person to be the nominee of the applicant. Once approved, the nominee then becomes liable as if they were the licensee or permit holder. The nominee will cease being a nominee if they cease to manage or control the licensed premises. Where this occurs, the licensee or permit holder needs to notify the VCGLR within 14 days. The nominee must reside in Victoria.

Lodgement checklist

This checklist details the documents required to accompany your application. Supplying these with your application will allow the Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation (VCGLR) to commence assessment of the application and can reduce processing time. Your application may be returned if the accompanying documents do not meet the requirements below.

Liquor licensing fact sheet

Plans of licensed premises

When a liquor licence or BYO permit is granted, it is for a defined area where liquor can be supplied and/or consumed. This is shown by a red-line drawn on a plan of the premises. This plan needs to be submitted to the Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation (VCGLR) as part of the application process and may be required upon request at any time.

The plan of the premises must accompany applications for:

- a licence or BYO permit excluding a pre-retail licence or a BYO permit for party bus
- a variation of a licence or BYO permit that involves a change to the size or perimeter of the licensed premises
- a transfer of a licence or BYO permit if the current floor layout of the premises differs from the plan held at the VCGLR
- the relocation of a licence or BYO permit.

Four copies of the plan should be lodged when submitting an application form.

Why do I need to submit four copies of the plan?

Four copies are required to enable:

- a copy to be endorsed as an approved plan and retained by the VCGLR
- a copy to be provided to Victoria Police as part of the application process
- a copy to be provided to the relevant local council as part of the application process
- an approved copy to be provided to the applicant on the grant of an application.

Plan of premises should be given to the VCGLR if internal changes are made.

If a change is made to the internal area of licensed premises (for example, by adding or removing a particular structure), the licensee should submit an updated plan of the licensed premises.

Plan of the premises to be given to the VCGLR if requested

In addition to the above, section 101A of the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998 provides that the VCGLR may at any time request that a licensee submit a current plan of a licensed premises.

What form should a plan take?

The VCGLR has specified that a plan must contain the following elements:

- be on suitably sized paper, minimum A4 size (graph paper is not acceptable)
- be drawn in ink and be neat and legible
- show the floor plan(s) of the owned or leased property
- outline in red the boundaries of the proposed area to be licensed
- if the proposed area does not follow a physical barrier (such as a wall), describe what is being used to separate the area
- show clear and consistent measurements on the plan
- include the address of the premises
- include a compass point showing north and names of the surrounding streets
- show basic functions or fixtures, for example, bar and dining area/kitchen area or in the case of a packaged liquor outlet, shelf areas where alcohol is displayed and the cash register is located
- a plan should be drawn to a suitable scale so that all elements above are clearly identified. A suggested scale is 1:100 (1 cm = 1m).

Restaurant and cafe licences and On-premises licences

If applying for kerbside trading, identify the area to be licensed and separately outline this area in red on the plan. The VCGLR will mark this area with an A.A on the approved copy of the plan. This area is referred to as the Authorised Area.

General licences

A general licence authorises the supply of liquor to patrons for consumption off the licensed premises, being a footpath or kerbside area. Therefore this area does not need to be identified on the plan.

Please note that licensees must comply with relevant local planning laws.

Where a proposed licensed or authorised area includes large outdoor spaces, a separate site plan must be provided that shows:

- the entire site including internal and external areas drawn to a suitable scale
- outline in red the proposed area that is to be licensed

- clear descriptions of how the proposed outdoor area will be distinguished (for example, fence, portable barriers, warning signs).

If the plan does not meet these requirements, the applicant will be required to resubmit the plan.

What am I required to do with my approved plan?

A copy of the approved plan must be kept on the licensed premises and must be available for inspection on request by a member of Victoria Police or a Compliance Inspector.

Failure to keep a copy of the plan on the licensed premises or produce a copy of the plan for inspection could result in a fine being issued.

Where can I get a copy of my approved plan?

If you do not have a copy of your approved plan, you can obtain a copy from the VCGLR at no extra cost.

An example of a plan is provided below.
