Topic 2 - About a full club licence

What this topic covers

This topic looks at the types of clubs that hold a full club licence, who may consume alcohol in your club and where they may consume alcohol.

What type of club has a full club licence?

If you have applied for or have been issued a full club licence, then you are the licensee or nominee at a large-scale sporting or other club such as:

- an RSI club
- an AFL club
- a club with gaming machines.

A full club licence is for clubs that operate on a commercial level, employing permanent staff and that offer a range of services for members, such as, gaming, dining facilities or a gymnasium.

Note: If your club is used primarily by people under 18 years old, then you cannot be licensed. This includes premises that are used primarily by junior sporting clubs.

A club licence is subject to:

- the rules of the club complying with Schedule 1 of the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998
- a condition that registers be kept (see page 6)
- sufficient records are kept to explain the financial situation of the club.
- a condition the club comply with the planning scheme.
- any other condition set down by the VCGLR

Who can you serve alcohol to?

You may serve alcohol to:

- your club members
- guests of your members
- authorised gaming visitors
 (An authorised gaming visitor must live more than 5 km (metropolitan areas) or 10 km (regional areas) from the licensed premises).

Topic 2 - About a full club licence (continued)

Where can alcohol be served and consumed?

Under a full club licence, you can serve members alcohol for consumption on and off the club premises.

Guests may only be served alcohol for consumption on the club premises.

The service of alcohol to members and guests must be carried out within the red-line area on the plan of your licensed premises.

Minors are not allowed to drink liquor on licensed premises under any circumstances

Topic 2 - About a full club licence (continued)

On-premises

Alcohol that is to be consumed on your premises must be served and consumed by your members, their guests and authorised gaming visitors within the red-line area.

Off-premises

Only club members can be served alcohol for off-premises consumption.

Alcohol that is served to club members for off-premises consumption may be supplied in sealed containers, such as stubbies, wine or spirits and taken and consumed anywhere off the club premises.

Members can therefore buy alcohol at the club and take it to any area outside your clubrooms such as a sporting event in your grounds.

They may also, for example, take stubbies to the park down the road to watch a game of football or cricket. However, drinking in public places should be discouraged via club house rules.

Local council

The local council may have a local law that prohibits people drinking in public places.

It is advisable to check with your local council to find out what the council local law is, and if applicable, display a sign advising patrons that they may be fined by council if they are found drinking in a public place other than at the tables and chairs provided by you.

Placing signs near doorways advising members and guests of your house rules may help to prevent members or guests from drinking in a public place, such as a park.

Topic 2 - About a full club licence (continued)

What is your red-line plan?

The red-line plan is the plan submitted with your club's original application for its liquor licence.

This plan is important as it shows where alcohol can be:

- supplied to members for on and off-premises consumption
- consumed by members, guest and visitors whilst on the club premises.

The red-line plan is important too if you intend to do renovations to your club. You may need to submit a new plan to the VCGLR for their consideration prior to making the proposed changes.

If you get a visit from Victoria Police or the VCGLR Inspector, they will likely have a copy of your plan and may check that you are operating within the red-line area.

It is an obligation under the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998 that you not only keep a copy on your premises, but that you produce it if requested to by the police or a VCGLR Inspector.

Club committee

Clubs are required to have a management committee responsible for club affairs. The committee needs to meet periodically and have minutes of the meetings.

Schedule 1 (see Appendix 1) of the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998 outlines this in more detail.

Members, guests and gaming visitors registers

Clubs must keep a register with the details of their members, guests and gaming visitors.

Members' register must contain the name and address of each member and their membership subscription. Members are not required to sign in each time they use the club; the register is to show who the members are.

Gaming visitors' register for clubs with a venue operator's licence, must keep a register of its gaming visitors' names and addresses and the date they visited the premises.

Gaming visitors should produce identification before being admitted to the licensed premises and carry it with them at all times whilst on the licensed premises.

Topic 2 - About a full club licence (continued)

Guest register for member's guests. A simple register with the guest's names and addresses, the member they are guests of, and the date they are visiting the club will be adequate.

The Club Secretary is responsible for ensuring these registers are kept on the club premises and that they are available for inspection by an authorised person who may be from Victoria Police or the VCGLR.

Underage members

Many sporting clubs have junior teams that train and play games at the club. Clubs must submit an application to the VCGLR requesting permission to allow anyone under 18 years to participate in club activities.

Where permission is granted, the terms and conditions will be stated on your licence. This usually contains a time by which the under-18-year-olds must leave the premises and any other conditions that apply to permitting under-18-year-olds in the club.

Non-member functions

Your full club licence does not permit you to hold non-member functions at your club.

Non-member functions can only be held on your club premises if you apply for an additional liquor licence.

For non-member functions, there are two options:

- 1. You supply the alcohol at the function under an additional limited licence.
- 2. The non-member function organisers supply their own alcohol at their function under their own limited licence. They would then just hire your club for the venue only.

What is a limited licence?

A limited licence is just that, limited in what it allows you to do.

There are two types of limited licences:

• Temporary: for one-off events/functions or a limited season

or

• Renewable: for regular events/functions outside your full club licence over a 12-month period.

See also: Self-paced Guide for a limited licence

Topic 2 - About a full club licence (continued)

Sub-letting A licensee must not let or sublet any part of the licensed premises or assign the right to supply liquor without the consent of the VCGLR.

Control of the business of the supply of liquor

A licensee must not permit any person who is not employed by the licensee to carry on a business of supplying liquor on the licensed premises.

Topic 3 – Full club licence conditions

What this topic covers

This topic looks at the conditions that are applied to a full club licence.

What are licence conditions?

They are the conditions that reflect what you must abide by in your licensed premises. Licence conditions are monitored and enforceable by Victoria Police and VCGLR inspectors.

Full club licence conditions include:

- your trading hours
- approvals and consents primarily to allow persons under 18 years on club premises.

Ordinary trading hours

Unless you request otherwise, your licence will have ordinary trading hours applied to it.

Ordinary trading hours for a full club licence are:

- Monday to Saturday: Any time
- Sunday: 10am to 11pm
- Anzac Day and Good Friday: 12 noon to 11pm
- New Year's Eve extended ordinary trading hours from 11.00pm on 31 December to 1.00am on 1 January (for the supply of liquor to a member of the club, an authorised gaming visitor, or a guest or a member for consumption on the licensed premises).

The VCGLR still has the power to restrict the above extended trading hours if there are concerns about alcohol-related harm and all licensees are reminded that local planning requirements still need to be met.

Your licence may state a different set of trading hours for on premises and off-premises consumption.

Remember, you have a 30-minute grace period after closing time for patrons to finish the drinks they have already purchased.

What is amenity?

All full club licences have the amenity condition on their licence.

Amenity is the affect that your venue and its patrons may have on the surrounding area.

The Liquor Control Reform Act 1998 defines amenity as:

'The quality that the area has of being pleasant and agreeable.'

Amenity includes:

Parking facilities

Do you have a car park? Do patrons park in nearby residential streets?

Traffic movement and density

Is there a lot of traffic in the surrounding area from patrons coming and going to your venue?

Noise levels

What measures do you have in place to minimise noise from your venue if you have amplified music, or from patrons leaving your venue?

Possibility of nuisance or vandalism

Is your clientele likely to cause a nuisance to nearby residents? Is there a potential that they may cause noise, nuisance or damage to property or cars?

Harmony and coherence of the environment

What general affect does your venue have on the local community and neighbouring businesses/residents?

Amenity condition

The amenity condition on your licence and what it means is outlined below:

Condition	What this means
The licensee shall not cause or permit undue detriment to the amenity of the area to arise out of, or in connection with the use of the premises to which the licence relates during or immediately after the trading hours authorised by this licence.	You are responsible for what happens in and around your venue. This includes the time that you are open for business and when customers are leaving your venue.
The licensee shall ensure that the level of noise emitted from the licensed premises shall not exceed the permissible noise levels for entertainment noise as specified in the State Environment Protection Policy (Control of Music Noise from Public Premises) No. N-2.	This condition relates to the Environment Protection Authority (EPA). For further information go to www.epa.vic.gov.au/noise and then click Entertainment venue noise.

Responsible adult

There are additional conditions placed on some club licences that relate to minors (under 18 years) being on the club premises. However, the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998 states that a person under 18 years may be on a licensed premises if they are in the company of a responsible adult.

A responsible adult is a person who is over the age of 18 years and who is:

- the younger person's parent, step-parent, guardian or grandparent, or
- the younger person's spouse (over the age of 18 years), or
- a person who is acting in place of a parent and who could reasonably be expected to exercise responsible supervision of the younger person (e.g. a sports coach).

Approvals and consents

The approvals and consents placed on some club licences are to ensure that minors are not on club premises other than for specific activities and when in the company of a responsible adult.

There are many different types of approvals and consents. Three examples are outlined below:

Condition	What this means
The licensee has the approval of the VCGLR to allow the presence of underage persons on the licensed premises in connection with sporting activities only. This approval does not include social activities (but does include attendance at a presentation function).	Persons under 18 years may be on the premises for sporting activities and presentation functions only.
Persons under the age of 18 years are permitted on the licensed club premises other than in the company of a responsible adult in relation to preparation for and participation in sporting events during the trading hours above.	Persons under 18 years may be on the premises for sporting events in the specified trading hours without being in the company of a responsible adult.

Persons under the age of 18 years are permitted on the licensed premises, except for areas prohibited by the Gaming Machine Control Act 1992 , (if any), between the hours of 7am and 11pm for purposes connected to club events or activities provided the minor is in the company of a member of the club being of the age of 18 years or over.	Persons under 18 years may be on the premises between the hours of 7am and 11pm for club events as long as they are in the company of a club member who is over 18 years. This excludes any gaming areas.
Unaccompanied minors are permitted to be on the licensed premises in connection with sporting activities (including a presentation function, live music and mixed age events (alcoholfree events)).	Persons under 18 years may be unaccompanied for sporting activities, and presentation functions, live music and mixed age events (alcohol-free events)).
